Michael D. Minton Honored As Tax Attorney of the Year by The Florida Bar Tax Section

(Orlando, FL) Dean Mead Attorney and Shareholder Michael D. Minton was honored by The Florida Bar Tax Section as the 2023 – 2024 Gerald T. Hart Outstanding Tax Attorney of the Year at the Section's meeting in Orlando, Florida on September 30, 2023. He is the first resident from the Treasure Coast of Florida to receive this award.

The Tax Section of The Florida Bar annually selects the professional who has made major contributions to the advancement of the practice of tax law and who exemplifies the highest standards of competence and integrity.

“Michael was selected for this recognition because he exemplifies all that the Tax Section represents,” shared Shawn Wolf, 2023-2024 Chair of the Tax Section of The Florida Bar. “He is a wealth of knowledge, a consummate professional and held in the highest regard by his peers, community, friends, and family. It is my true pleasure to honor Michael with this award.”

Michael is a triple University of Florida (UF) graduate, awarded a Master of Laws in Taxation in 1982, a Juris Doctor in 1981, and a Bachelor of Science degree from the College of Agriculture in 1979. Throughout his 40+ year career he has represented family enterprises with an emphasis on generationally owned agricultural businesses.

He served as a past Chair of the UF College of Law Center of Association, Inc. Board of Trustees and Florida Alumni Tax Advisory Committee. An emeritus Board Member of the UF Foundation, Michael currently services on the Board for Gator Boosters, Inc. For 30 years he has served as a Board Member of the Indian River State College Foundation, Inc. and currently serves on the Board for Florida Tax Watch and the Florida Chamber of Commerce.
